

Quotes from the book – THE YELLOW WALLPAPER

- The 'brainwashing' of women done by men is reflected when she says "I confess it always makes me feel bad"
- "John laughs at me, of course, but one expects that in marriage"
- "John is practical in the extreme"
- "He does not believe I am sick! And what can one do?"
- "Personally, I disagree with their ideas. Personally, I believe that congenial work, with excitement and change, would do me good."
- "John would no hear of it"
- "He takes all care from me"
- "There comes John, and I must put this away, - he hates to have me write a word"
- "He knows there is no reason to suffer"
- "I lie here on this great immovable bed"
- "he loves me very dearly, and hates to have me sick"
- "I am a doctor, dear, and I know"
- The narrator exclaims "better in body perhaps"
- John thinks it is all a "false and foolish fancy"
- "The fact is I am getting a little afraid of John"
- "I am more quiet than I was"
- "I wonder if they all come out of the wallpaper as I did?"