This guide is designed to take you through the H472/02 OCR A Level English Literature exam paper. Our aim is to explain how candidates should approach each paper and how marks are awarded to the different questions.

The advice given is the same for all questions across all of the set texts as question wording and structure is consistent.

The orange text boxes offer further explanation of the questions on the exam paper. They offer guidance on the wording of questions and what candidates should do in response to them.

The green text boxes focus on the awarding of marks for each question. They give further information on the percentage weighting of each assessment objective attributed to each question.

E.g. “This will always be a comparison based on a cultural or social situation with a clear thematic link between the situations and/or experiences.”

E.g. AO3 (35%)
Answer Question 7.

Then answer one question from 8 (a), 8 (b) or 8 (c). You should spend 1 hour and 15 minutes on each question.

7 Write a critical appreciation of the passage, relating your discussion to your reading concerning Women in Literature.

...........Dear, dear! Let me request that in future you will keep them decent at least! so saying, he turned away, and continued his ride up to the house. This was Mr. Bloomfield. I was surprised that he should nominate his children Master and Miss Bloomfield; and still more so, that he should speak so uncivilly to me, their governess, and a perfect stranger to himself. Presently the bell rang to summon us in. I dined with the children at one, while he and his lady took their luncheon at the same table. His conduct there did not greatly raise him in my estimation. He was a man of ordinary stature—rather below than above—and rather thin than stout, apparently between thirty and forty years of age: he had a large mouth, pale, dingy complexion, milky blue eyes, and hair the colour of a hempen cord. There was a roast leg of mutton before him: he helped Mrs. Bloomfield, the children, and me, desiring me to cut up the children’s meat; then, after twisting about the mutton in various directions, and eyeing it from different points, he pronounced it not fit to be eaten, and called for the cold beef.......

Anne Brontë, Agnes Grey (1847)

(a) Jane Austen: Sense and Sensibility
‘Writing about women often portrays them as creatures of emotion rather than reason.’ By comparing Sense and Sensibility with at least one other text prescribed for this topic, discuss how far you have found this to be the case.

Or

(b) Virginia Woolf: Mrs Dalloway
‘Literature by and about women is often very strong in its depiction of the inner life.’ Discuss this aspect of writing by comparing Mrs Dalloway with at least one other text prescribed for this topic.

Or

(c) ‘Women in literature are defined by their relationship with men.’ By comparing at least two texts prescribed for this topic, explore how far you agree with this claim. In your answer you must include discussion of either Sense and Sensibility and/or Mrs Dalloway.
